

ADDITIONAL SUPPORT TO SUSTAIN EMPLOYMENT

A package of tailored 'In-Work Support' is available to complement and enhance Scotland's Employer Recruitment Incentive (SERI). This support is being delivered nationally by a partnership made up of Scotland's leading specialist employment providers. This includes ENABLE Scotland, Action for Children Scotland, Action on Hearing Loss Scotland, Barnardo's, Capability Scotland, the Carers Trust, Concept Northern, Kibble, the Lennox Partnership, Remploy, RNIB Scotland, SAMH, the Shirlie Project, VERG Ltd and WEA..

The In-Work Support is tailored to the needs of the individual and offers specialist employer services, which can include mentoring, job coaching, training, orientation visits and providing training to the employers' staff. Help towards essential equipment or work clothes can also be provided. The support package can be accessed at any point within the first 52 weeks of employment.

Eligibility

The first group of young people who can access this support are those participating in SERI - eligibility list can be found here. In addition to SERI participants, the In-Work Support package is also available to the following groups:

- Those who are about to be recruited but who may not be able to receive SERI (e.g. where a Local Authority no longer has SERI places available or where other issues preclude engagement);
- Those young people already in employment (since 1 July 2015) where additional support is required to sustain their first 52 weeks of employment.

The following providers deliver specialist support in the following local authority area.

Action for Children

Action for Children Scotland is a charity that supports the most vulnerable and neglected children and young people and we've been doing so for 60 years. With 85 services we are at the heart of local communities - where you live and work.

We deliver employability support through a cluster of services in

- 1 Glasgow
- 2 Edinburgh
- 3 East Lothian
- 4 East Ayrshire
- 5 Inverclyde
- 6 West Dunbartonshire
- 7 South Lanarkshire
- 8 North Lanarkshire

We also deliver some aspect of employability support within our youth services. These areas are: Borders, Western Isles, Inverness, Aberdeen, Aberdeenshire, Dundee, Perth, Moray and Renfrewshire.

Action on Hearing Loss

Action on Hearing Loss Scotland is a registered charity, previously known as RNID. We deliver a range of information and support services, which includes training for organisations and businesses to ensure their services and employees do not discriminate against employees or customers who are deaf or have hearing loss.

Local Authority (LA) areas we work in

- 1 Inverclyde
- 2 Renfrewshire
- 3 West Dunbartonshire

Barnardos

Barnardo's Works is a successful and well established programme that equips disaffected young people with the skills, experience and opportunities to access independent, sustainable employment. The programme partners with employers to provide a supported path to employment in areas that have a specific skills shortage.

Barnardo's Works effectively addresses issues at the root of social exclusion and assists young people to overcome disadvantage and the impact of poverty. Barnardo's Works is aimed at young people who require additional support to access and maintain employment and training. This would include young people who have experience of disadvantage such as leaving care, mental health issues and chaotic lifestyles, history of offending, low levels of literacy and numeracy skills or history of inactivity during the year since leaving school.

Currently we deliver out programmes across the following Local Authority areas:

- 1 East Renfrewshire
- 2 Renfrewshire
- 3 Glasgow

- 4 Angus
- 5 Edinburgh
- 6 East Lothian
